BUREAU CIRCULAR NO. 1371

To All Members of the Bureau:

Re: ADDITIONS TO ELIGIBLE CLASSIFICATIONS
PENNSYLVANIA CONSTRUCTION CLASSIFICATION PREMIUM ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM
EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1998

The Pennsylvania Compensation Rating Bureau has filed and the Insurance Commissioner has approved three additional classifications to be designated as eligible for the Pennsylvania Construction Classification Premium Adjustment Program (PCCPAP) effective as of 12:01 a.m., July 1, 1998 for new and renewal business. These additional PCCPAP classifications are new temporary staffing classes for excavation (Code 691), carpentry (Code 693) and electrical staff (Code 695). The addition of these three classes to PCCPAP is consistent with ongoing Bureau practice of extending eligibility for this program to all "600" series classifications and corrects an oversight which occurred when Codes 691, 693 and 695 were previously added to the uniform classification plan and the corresponding entries in the PCCPAP tables were inadvertently overlooked. Please see Bureau Circular No. 1369, dated March 20, 1998, for the balance of the PCCPAP revisions effective July 1, 1998.

SECTION 1

RULE IX - SPECIAL CONDITIONS OR OPERATIONS AFFECTING COVERAGE
